Miss Ethel McCormac of Columbia, is visiting the Misses McDonald.

Mr. Kay McCormac of Columbia is visiting friends and relatives here.

Miss White of Marion, is the guest of Misses Cora and Florence Cottingham.

Col. J. W. ... the South Carolina ... South of ...

... carries with it the rank of Lieut. Colonel and it is needless to say that Dr. Smith will wear the honors that have been conferred upon him with grace and dignity.

It will be extremely gratifying to Rev. F. O. S. Curtis' many Dillon friends to learn that he has been appointed Chaplain General of the South Carolina Division U. C. V., by Maj. Gen. Zimmerman Davis, the commander. This is one of the most important of Gen. Davis' staff appointments and gives Mr. Curtis the rank of Lieut. Colonel. The appointment falls on worthy shoulders and Mr. Curtis' friends are happy in the realization that he has been so signally honored.

Miss Annie Alford was hostess at a delightful reception Saturday evening in honor of her brother, Mr. Frank Alford, of Columbia. A large number of guests assembled between the hours of 5:30 and 11 o'clock. Fruit nectar was served by a bevy of pretty girls, and later the guests were served cream and cake. Those participating were Misses Annie and Nona Stackhouse, Marion Lee Price, Birmingham, Ala., Lucy Gasque, Hallie McMillan, Marion, Eleanor Roddick, Red Springs, N. C., Beulah Mason, Nina David Grace and Alice Hamer, Virginia Nernsee, May Carmichael, Virgie Allen, Ella and Kate Braddy, Lillian Peterkin, Edith Elliott, Jeddie David, Dillon, Artie Mullins, Marion, Messrs. son, C. L. Moody, Pierce Alford, Earle Bethea, Frank David, Victor Bethea, Alex Carroll, Bennettville, Clarence Goodwyn, J. B. Gibson, Ralph Little, Joe King, Leslie Mosley, Greenville.

Gretna Green Affairs.

Dillon is becoming a veritable Gretna Green for North Carolina lovers who find parental objections standing in the way of their happiness. Last Sunday Miss McKoy and Mr. Morris Bates of ... were accompanied by Misses Irene Poole and Julia Pate. Tuesday Miss Elizabeth Beckham and Mr. C. B. Martin of Raleigh, accompanied by Mr. W. D. Masser of Henderson, arrived in the city after many thrilling and hair-breadth escapes and were quietly married by Mr. Kirkland.

Where True Love Didn't Run Smooth.

Mr. Benjamin Franklin McDaniel lives near Kentyre, and Mrs. Annie Horn lives just across the state line in the section known as Blackankle, a section of country that bristles with tragedies and comedies. For quite awhile Mr. McDaniel had been paying court to Mrs. Horn. Both parties had in years past worked under the matrimonial yoke. As each of their partners had dropped by the wayside life to them had lost many of its charms and as a foregone conclusion when first they met 'twas only a case of love at first sight. By his assiduous attentions and protestations of undying love the fair widow capitulated. It was on Saturday Mr. McDaniel came to Dillon, called on Mr. B., one of our progressive merchants, and informed him that next morning he would marry the charming Mrs. Horn and wished to purchase a shirt for that momentous occasion. Mr. B. made a selection that pleased him, having a blending of all the colors of the rainbow—gorgeous in the extreme. Returning home with the new shirt he and Bill Jones together arrayed Mr. McD. in almost regal splendor. Then Bill Jones, first man, master of ceremonies and chief bottle holder, hitched up a team and started for the widow's, twelve miles away. The bride and groom were to return Sunday for the intair dinner which was to be prepared by the groom's daughter-in-law, only a mile from his home. The feast had been duly prepared and was waiting the arrival of the wedding party. Noon came, then the lock ticked off the hours from 1 to 8 and no bridal party arrived. They listened to hear Bill Jones whistling Mendlesohn's wedding march, but not an echo could be heard. Soon after sunrise Sunday morning Bill and Benjamin hove in sight without the bride. Bill said a rabbit ran across the road ahead of them and he knew then Benjamin would return wifeless. Another case of the "slip twixt cup and lip."

A Speedy Cure
Constipation, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Tired Feeling, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bad Complexion, Nervousness and a disease of the Stomach, Liver and bowels.
"Bloodline Liver Pills" act gently, yet thoroughly upon the bowels, stomach and digestive organs. The pills do not irritate, but they stimulate the bowels to act at once, without griping, and do not produce unpleasant after-effects, nor do they cause any of purging, produced by other cathartic remedies. "Bloodline Liver Pills" restore the deranged system to its normal condition and healthful action. Remove the cause of constipation by acting directly on the operation of the bowels, and relieve the most unpleasant symptoms which attend a deranged condition of the liver, stomach and bowels. In acting on the bowels, the following results are offered:
1. They remove the cause of constipation, and prevent its return.
2. They stimulate the bowels to prevent the accumulation of bile by clearing the liver and biliary channels. Therefore usually, after the use of "Bloodline Liver Pills," the bowels are regular and increase in size as necessary.
3. They remove the cause of indigestion, and prevent its return.
4. They stimulate the liver to prevent the accumulation of bile by clearing the liver and biliary channels. Therefore usually, after the use of "Bloodline Liver Pills," the bowels are regular and increase in size as necessary.
5. They remove the cause of indigestion, and prevent its return.
